WISCONSIN
Home Insurance Office,
No. 6 Kneeland's Block.
MILWAUKEE, WISCONSIN, MARCH 25, 1885.

[illegible]

THIS COMPANY CONTINUES TO TAKE RISKS upon fire: Property only, consisting of buildings of all kinds, (including to farmers,) household furniture, etc., in all parts of the State.

We believe it to be for the interest of the farmers to insure their crops by their property, being less burdened with insurance, and they will be able to keep their own share of the same class, and all will be on an equal footing.

Experience has shown that two thirds if not three fourths of the first class owners are upon shares (farmers, millers, etc.), and that the property is liable to loss, and such property is required (insured) by law to remain alone.

Farmers, look to your own interest, and insure in a Farmers Cooperative.

We have been doing business a little over three years, and we have not been obliged to make any premium notes.

The best of it from a legal as to the responsibility of the Company.
